Lessons underway this term, from our youngest learners to our evening classes.

The new term is underway at jamesalbert®, and it has been lovely to welcome familiar faces and new families into our classrooms. With lessons beginning well and exciting projects taking shape, we look forward to a term filled with learning, creativity and shared achievements.

In this first issue of The Dispatch, we bring you the news from across the Institute — new courses opening, new classes beginning, and a look ahead to the Christmas show our young performers are already rehearsing for.

IN THE CLASSROOM

SATURDAY CLASSES

Saturday classes are underway

Our Saturday classes have made a happy start! Teacher Diana works with our Class 2 children, helping them build confidence through speaking, listening and playful activities.

NEW COURSES & PROJECTS

NEW LANGUAGES

Discover German and Spanish

Teacher Arriana will lead our new German and Spanish classes, opening the door to new languages and cultures, with a welcoming environment to build confidence.

AFTER SCHOOL

Learning beyond the classroom

Our after-school project with Teacher Elisa and Teacher Barbara offers children a welcoming space to continue learning, with support and creative activities.

"Be kind. Be curious. Be you."

ON THE CLASSROOM WALL THIS TERM

Rehearsals are already underway for the Christmas show.

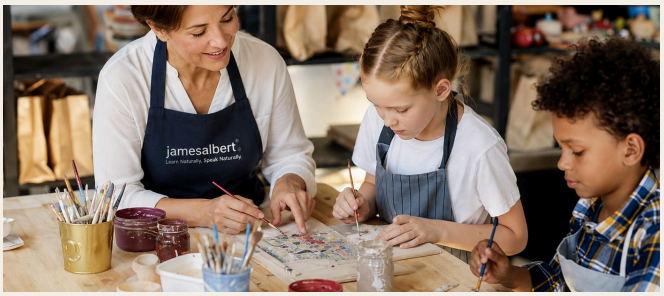

THE STAGE IS CALLING

Our Christmas show takes shape

Teacher Diana and Teacher Elisa are preparing to launch our drama classes, with an exciting Christmas show as the first goal. Both bring more than fifteen years of experience teaching children. Weekly one-hour Wednesday sessions will combine English, songs and theatre.

AROUND THE INSTITUTE

CREATIVE CORNER

Small pieces, beautiful creations

Teacher Irene will lead our mosaic art classes, inviting students to explore colour, shape and creativity, one small piece at a time.

SEASONAL

A little Halloween magic

Halloween is on the horizon, bringing seasonal magic to our newsletter — a lovely opportunity to explore playful English words together.

A moment to connect — parents are warmly invited to join the new English course.

A TERM TO SHARE

More ways for families to learn together

From the new parents' English course to the after-school project, this term brings more ways than ever for families to learn alongside their children. Whether it's a Saturday morning class, a new language, or an evening lesson after the children are settled, there is a place for every member of the family at jamesalbert® this term.

We look forward to seeing you around the Institute — at the school gates, in the corridors, and at the Christmas show in December.
